Message from the Desk of President

Dear friends,

The last one year and half of the Covid-19 pandemic prevented us from planning most of our organizational activities. Last year we had to replace the routine Microcon with virtual e-Microcon, timely organized by the Delhi Chapter of IAMM under the leadership of Dr Chand Wattal and Dr Sonal Saxena, which was a great success. Many senior members welcomed the digital mode of conference and wanted the digital option to be part of future conferences as the new normal.

This year, we have been debating about the possibility of holding the scheduled Microcon 2021 expectantly with eyes on the evolving Covid-19 situation. We had digital meetings with the Executive Committee members, past Presidents, and senior members of the IAMM, and have remained optimistic about holding the Microcon 2021. Recently, with the Covid-19 situation relatively easing up with an enormously successful vaccination drive and implementation of other preventive measures, all activities have been limping back to normal, and the possibility of holding Microcon 2021 seemed viable.

I am happy that the Guwahati Medical College and the Guwahati Chapter of Medical Microbiology, under the able leadership of Dr Ajanta Sharma and Dr Syed Tanwir Alam as the Chairperson and the Organising Secretary respectively, have agreed to hold the Microcon 2021 on 21-24 December 2021. The conference will be organized in the hybrid mode and anyone desirous of attending the conference will have options to join either physically or digitally. The format of the conference will be the same as the past annual conferences of the IAMM.

We have less than two months before the conference. It is a tough call for the organizers to arrange the national conference and for the IAMM to organize all the IAMM awards, orations, symposia, and other events at such a short notice. Please encourage your students to submit their abstracts in large numbers and disseminate the information to everyone you know.

I wish all the very best to MICROCON -2021 team. Wish you all a very Happy and Prosperous Diwali. The Covid pandemic is far from over, and all those planning to attend the conference physically, do get fully vaccinated and follow all covid-appropriate preventive measures strictly. Eagerly waiting to see you all at Guwahati!

Best wishes,
Dr. Pallab Ray
